

University of Maryland Study for Young Children who are Very Shy

Is your 45-60 month (3.5 to 5 year) old child shy?

You may be eligible to participate in a University of Maryland study. The study includes a program to help parents and children learn strategies to help children feel more comfortable in social situations.

For more information please contact the Preschool Shyness Study at 301-405-5227
or littleturtles@umd.edu